

PRESS RELEASE*DATE: APRIL 2016*The brand new Frames by Franke collection offers unique design harmony in sinks, hoods, hobs and ovens

Best known for their sinks and taps, Franke has now added hobs, ovens and more hoods to their offering with a brand new contemporary collection called Frames by Franke.

Ultra-streamlined and ultra-functional, Frames by Franke is a complete kitchen system offering 36 sinks, taps, hoods, hobs and ovens. This is a new stand-alone collection with a sophisticated edge.

What makes this collection different is that all products have the same design style and footprint so you can achieve a perfectly streamlined and co-ordinated design look throughout your kitchen, with the assurance of maximum performance.

Hobs and sinks sit flush in the worksurface in a slim and elegant stainless steel frame, while the hoods and ovens mirror the same understated elegance with chic glass and stainless steel features. A choice of champagne or black glass, full colour touchscreens, intuitive slider controls, as well as automatic hob and hood activation are just some of finer details of this elegant collection.

More than just products, Frames by Franke is a total concept that is designed to transition your kitchen effortlessly through day and night while you cook, dine, entertain and relax. By day, the products take centre stage offering maximum performance, while at night their sleek design means they blend elegantly into the background. Ergonomically, all products are designed to work together seamlessly to optimise the workflow around the kitchen. Bring on the next dinner party!
