Take a look at our brand new energy and water saving washrooms CPD which covers the causes and consequences of long term water shortages. Discover how specifying energy and water efficient products within washroom environments can help create a sustainable future.

#1 WATER SCARCITY
Understand the global context of water scarcity and the threat of long term water shortages in different regions throughout the UK.

#2 WASHROOM PRODUCTS
How specifying water and energy saving products can achieve higher BREEAM and LEED points enhancing overall building performance.

#3 MAKING A CHANGE
Understand the cost and energy saving benefits of highly efficient washroom products in comparison to the BREEAM base level.